Green team update

The GT have been busy clearing out one of our porches, transforming it into a greenhouse for growing seeds. They have received thanks from Hodge Lane reserve for the donation they raised and are looking forward to the next table-top sale on 24th of this month. They also have a family local litter-pick planned for the first weekend of the Easter holiday.

Online safety

This week's advice sheet gives you some information about NGL ( Not Gonna Lie) which asks followers for anonymous feedback on social media accounts.

Friends of Florendine

Hopefully you will have seen that the Friends are holding a Family Chocolate Bingo night on Wednesday the 22nd of March. Tickets for the event will be on sale on both playgrounds at the end of the day today and next Tuesday, at a £1 each.

The Friends are asking for donations of chocolate items for their Easter raffle in return for coming to school in non-uniform this Friday, the 10th of March. Funds raised will help support events for all children.

Parent consultations

Appointments for the rest of school will be open to book from the 13th of March for the week beginning March the 27th.
